

UNITED CHURCH HELD CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The Ladies Aid report presented by the Treasurer, Mrs. Nichol, was an unusual show of a busy year. Receipts totalled $505.00, $300.00 of which was used to assist the local board. The report was presented briefly but pointedly told the Ladies, The United effort of the Ladies under the able leadership of Mrs. Homer Nelson has been responsible for this splendid show.

The report of the Maintenance and Missionary Fund was presented by the Secretary, Treasurer Mrs. Giffen, Jr. The object of the $500.00 was to assist the local support of all organizations of the church coupled with the excellent response from those - as were canvassed personally.

George H. Jones was thanked for his Secretary was very encouraging. Receipts for the year amounted to $121.59 were accounted for on the Expenditure side. Accounts receivable were $100.00. A considerable of this is owing on the pledge account under the supervision of Miss Hughes, the Envelope

Following the adoption of the above reports the officers for the year 1931 were nominated; and the election resulted in the selection of the following board: Mr D A Perry, Mr J Taylor, Mr Jones Mrs J. J. Lydiate, Mr Nichol Mrs Bray Miss Gladys Hughes, Envelope Secretary Miss Florence Garrett. Organist and Choir Leader; Mrs Homer Wilson, President Ladies Aid, Mr

At a subsequent meeting of the Board Mr Nichol was unanimously chosen as Chairman and Mr George Jones as Secretary Treasurer. Genuine notes of appreciation were expressed for the work of Miss Garrett as Leader of the choir and Mr Lydiatt as assistant and the retiring officials Mayor Shrimpton, Mr Miner, Mr McGregg, Mr Garrett and Mr West as well as those who were continuing in office.

A delightful social hour in the basement under the influence of the ladies' Coffee, Cake and sandwiches brought a pleasant evening to a close.

- SPORT -

HEAVYWEIGHT BOXING'S DECLINE

The heavyweight boxing division grows more and more, and a long suffering public is getting disgusted. There are many and varied reasons for the decay of this thrilling sport, and one opinion is as good as another. There is no Rex Rickard to lead the mittmen into the promised land of millions; dollar purses, and those in charge of the sport have failed miserably. In this connection the New York State Athletic Commission is one thing but managers, its automatic stand in all matters pertaining to boxing has brought disrepute, and has wrecked the plan to decide the various world championships. In this state of chaos boxing has been a sport divided, and there seems to be no immediate hope of straightening out the difficulties that beset it.

Jack Dempsey avers that Jack Sharkey has been mainly responsible for the position the heavyweight division is in, and Dempsey is perhaps not shooting wide of the mark. However, it would be well to consider that Madison Square Garden started a lot of trouble by making the Boston Glob his headline attraction.

Without the support of the Garden, and plenty of nonseasonal bait, Dempsey might never have reached the championship contender class. At his best he would have been only a set up for the great champions who have gone before him.

For years the heaviest settled their differences without having recourse to foul blows, but in these modern days the reverse has been the obnoxious case. While Sharkey is no world beater, it must be remembered that he defeated Bill Stribling decisively, and outclassed Max Schmeling the night the German won the title via the foul blow route. Yet the public is now asked to recognize the winner of the forthcoming Schmeling-Stribling bout as the world champion.

Without the support of the Garden, and plenty of nonseasonal bait, Dempsey might never have reached the championship contender class. At his best he would have been only a set up for the great champions who have gone before him.

OWNERS VERY PROMISING

TWO YEAR OLD

Walter J. Salmon, well-known New York turfman, who is usually represented by a string of horses at Woodbine Park, is the possessor of one of the most promising of the present crop of two year olds. The speedy youngster is by the noted Mad Hatter, himself a great racer in his days of competition, out of an imported mare, Eurasia. Horsemen who have seen the Salmon colt in training trials have been greatly impressed with his speed. Carrying a heavy exercise boy, he has been "clocked" in several trials, and in one sensational time, Veteran trainers who have inspected him refer to him as a "perfect" horse. According to them, he not only ran fast, but, in his present, he is not particularly big, but is well made, and has so much impressed the experts as to be compared with the famous Bromwich. Mr. Salmon has eight other juveniles, but this Mad Hatter son is said to be outstanding in the Salmon stable.

CONNIE MACK'S STAR TEAM

Connie Mack, who has been connected with baseball for over 25 years as player and manager, has selected his all time, all star team, and no man is better qualified to do so, it is no fallow. Pitcher, Christy Mathewson; catcher, Buck Ewing; first base George Sisler; second base Eddie Collins; short stop, Ross Wagner; third base Jimmy Collins; outfield Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Ty Cobb. It is unquestionably a team of stars, but so many outstanding players have had to be left out, many arguments are bound to ensue. For instance, Matty was a wonderful pitcher, but it is tough to overlook Walter Johnson, old timers like to talk of the famous Black Lizard, but it is difficult to believe he was any better than Mickey Vernon is today.

EMIL ST. GODARD LEAVES TO COMPETE IN THE EAST

The Fox, Man, Emil St. Godard has left his hand on his annual pilgrimage to the gold and glory that lie to the south and east. King of the continent's numbers, the young French Canadian dog sled driver leaves with the hope of repeating the clean sweep he scored in eastern major races last season. He will defend titles won at Ottawa, Quebec, and the Eastern States championship in New Hampshire, returning to the Fox in time for the toughest grind of them all—the 200 mile non-stop grind from here to the Pike and back. St. Godard starts his campaign at Ottawa on February 2nd.

EXPENSIVE MAIL ORDER PROMOTION

By J. D. Skinner

Resolved that my support to the home town paper in 1931 will be 100 per cent.

A few years ago an able and ardent article was written by an editor of a small town weekly in Alberta. The business men of the town were complaining because of the heavy loss being taken by mail order houses. During the year the combined amounts spent by the mail order merchants in advertising was only a fraction of that spent in the same town by mail order houses. The local merchants lost, it may be said, but the merchants in their preparation were very much in evidence. On the other hand the merchants of the small order house was attractively illustrated and written in a convincing and gripping style. The article clearly demonstrated why the home town merchant and the home town were losing out.

A prominent business man in a small British Columbia town does not advertise in the home town paper. He considers that it is a waste of money, because the people in the town and district know where to find him. He also knows where to find the mail order house, but the mail order house is alive to the necessity of keeping its message constantly before the people. Here I was told from a well informed source that more money was sent out of town for merchandise than was spent in only.

A little reflection reveals the fact that the home town merchant is not saving that which he does not spend in advertising. That he is actually paying for the advertising done by the mail order house, how could? Part of the earnings of the mail order house in a given section is used in advertising in that section. Because of this advertising on the one hand and the lack of it on the other, that money is being withheld from the home town merchant, so that in the last analysis the mail order house advertisement at the expense of the home town merchant.

Now I am not thinking of advertising in the sense of contract for, paying for and "filling" space in the local paper, but in thinking of a wide-awake merchant preventing his business from going to the buying public in a compelling style. And if the "seller" would just visualize a few hundred to a few thousand people who would send away from him some practice of "sounding to it up for this week."

Many of our once thriving towns are going to stage a come back in 1931. This is going to be done through advertising. Advertisers look up the business, but the home town merchant has been and the lost business is going to be won back through advertising. More and better advertising will make a prosperous paper and a prosperous town.

And this is why the people of the home town should resolve to give a 100 per cent support to the home town paper this and every year.

DALEMEAD

Dalemead was well represented at the U F A Convention last week. The following being either in full or part time attendance, Mrs. M. King, Mrs. Harry Porter, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Chas. Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Der Velle were also in town during the week. It will be interesting to hear the reports this year.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wheeler last Wednesday evening. When about fifty of their friends and neighbors gathered there to spend the evening. Nine tables of 500 were played after which the ladies served a very delightful luncheon. Mr. H. W. Cleveland was recently again received Superintendent of the Jameson Sunday School. His attendance this winter has been very good, and we all hope that as the season advances that will be maintained. The other officers of the Sunday School are: Mr. L. O. Hill, Bible Class Teacher, Mrs. C. F. Cooper, (teacher of the senior boys and girls; Mr. M. M. King, Junior class teacher; Miss Muriel Hall is the pianist.

ARDENODE

Don't forget Friday the 26th, the U F A Social at the Schoolhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart of Calgary spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lydia Sharnau.

Mr. E. C. Chandler left for Calgary Monday morning to attend the U F A Convention as delegate from this Local.

Among the visitors to the U F A Convention were noticed Mr. C. O. Dawson; Mr. G. Dawson; Mr. Wm. Knott; Mr. Clifford Johnson; Mr. J. B. Sarason; Mr. Chas. Van Der Velle and Mr. and Mrs. W. Freeman.

Mr. T. L. Chamberlain was a visitor to Calgary last week. Mrs. M. M. King and Mr. George left Friday for the east.

Those who are fortunate enough have had notice in their homes and have been invited in Friday afternoon to the U F W A in Calgary should have heard our Turkey Queen Mrs. A. Freeman, when she spoke a few words on turkey raising. We were disappointed when Mrs. Freeman decided she would say no more just then, but we can trust to some future time that we can listen to Mrs. Freeman tell us more interesting facts on raising turkeys. I wonder if eggs will go any lower in price, who has heard of 15 eggs in January.
